Dear Staff at IDEAS,

In response to an article in a recent IDEAS Newsletter, regarding a Guesthouse at the NSW town of Uki, which offered accommodation to persons with disabilities & their carers, I booked a holiday there for my husband and myself for seven days.

It was the best spontaneous decision I have made for a long time. We have travelled extensively during our life, but this was one of the most relaxing stress free, friendly & most enjoyable stays we have experienced in ages. We couldn't have been more pleasantly surprised.

Our hosts Jules & Maggie, have thought of absolutely everything for people with disabilities & their carers. Bathrooms, bedrooms, all wheelchair accessible, Pool (complete with hoist), mobility scooters etc & the list goes on. If they haven't got it & you need it they will do their utmost to get it for you. It is 4 star rated, but we would up that by 1 star at the least. It is spotlessly clean & everything is within easy reach for someone using a walker or a wheelchair.

Jules is an excellent cook, who prepares meals to your taste & has Barista skills second to none in a kitchen which would be the envy of any Chef in the land. Maggie & Jules treat you just like one of their family & spoil you into the bargain. My husband is very reluctant to travel anywhere with his disability these days, so it was so good to see him thoroughly enjoying his stay there, and to that we will be booking a repeat stay there again in the not too distant future.

Thank you so much IDEAS for the story on the Uki Guesthouse. It is much more than we imagined it would be.

Yours truly, Barbara McCormack
